Application for Writing and Editing Elective

Dear Selection Panel,

I am writing to express my keen interest in enrolling in the Writing and Editing elective for journalism year three at Rhodes University. As a dedicated journalism student who has completed two years of rigorous coursework, I believe this elective will allow me to sharpen my writing and editing skills, which are crucial for excellence in journalism.

Throughout my academic journey at Rhodes University, I have developed a deep appreciation for the power of the written word in conveying accurate and impactful stories. I have consistently demonstrated my commitment to journalism by maintaining high marks in Media Studies and Media Production, actively participating in the student newspaper, and pursuing an internship. I also took the initiative to obtain another internship position at the Daily Dispatch over the December holiday. However, I recognise that there is always room for improvement and growth, and I am eager to take my skills to the next level through the Writing and Editing elective.

What excites me most about this elective is the opportunity to work closely with experienced faculty members who can provide invaluable guidance and mentorship. I am eager to learn about the intricacies of journalistic writing, from crafting compelling headlines to ensuring accuracy and ethical reporting. The editing aspect of the course will enable me to refine my critical eye for detail and grammar, ensuring that I produce content that is both informative and polished.

In today's fast-paced media landscape, the demand for skilled journalists who can produce high-quality written content is present. Whether it's crafting investigative reports, feature stories, or opinion pieces, I am enthusiastic about the prospect of contributing to the journalism field by delivering well-crafted and impactful narratives.

I am committed to excellence in journalism and believe that the Writing and Editing elective at Rhodes University will equip me with the tools and knowledge needed to succeed in this field. I look forward to the opportunity to immerse myself in this elective, collaborate with fellow aspiring journalists, and learn from the best in the industry. I have always loved writing and expressing myself through words and I look forward to do this further.

Thank you for considering my application. I am eager to take on the challenges and opportunities that the Writing and Editing elective will provide, and I am confident that it will help me achieve my goal of becoming a proficient and ethical journalist.

Yours sincerely,
